		PUBLIC GUARDIAN, Trustee, is petitioner. Petition alleges the Public Guardian was appointed successor Trustee upon the removal of the former Trustee, Philip Pacella. In that capacity the Public Guardian has participated in litigation with the homeowners' association for the condo owned by the trust. After Phyllis E. Pacella died, her son Philip Pacella lived at the condo. The Association filed a "Complaint for Foreclosure of Lien and for Money Damages: for violations of its covenants and restrictions. Although the Association was aware of the Public Guardian's appointment, it continued to attempt service of its complaint on Mr. Pacella. When Mr. Pacella failed to answer the complaint, a default was entered in favor of the Association. Thereafter, months of negotiations resulted in a set-aside of the default and an agreement to resolve the underlying action. Probate Code § 16242 confirms that a trustee has the power to "settle a claim by or against the trust by compromise . . ." Although Petitioner asserts that no court approval is required given this code section, she nevertheless requests the Court's approval of the compromise. This litigation involves two entities, and affects individual beneficiaries, all of whom will be protected by a court order. A summary of the agreement is as follows: 1) the Public Guardian will pay to the association $25,000, which covers all costs and fees (including attorney). The original default judgment was in excess of $40,000. Petitioner did extensive research to determine which fines were valid and which dues were owed by the Trust due to Philip's failure to pay them. 2) The Public Guardian was to pay for December 2011 association dues, and pay an advance of dues owed for January-June 2012. Wherefore, the Public Guardian prays as follows: 1. The Court approve the settlement as proposed.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENT S:
